

Zimmermann and Downie chose ceiling-high Ikea cabinets for their bedroom because they take up less space than a walk-in closet. A favorite painting by Constantin Jaxy over the bed is matted with leftover stainless steel from the kitchen backsplash. Opposite: "Instead of the twin pedestal sinks that were suggested for our bathroom," says Zimmermann. "we chose a Fireslate counter that gives us space to lay out our stuff."